Company and Account Owner of personal Account also acknowledges:

- a. If Company tells Bank within two (2) Business Days after Company learns of the loss or the theft of Its Login Credentials, Company can lose no more than $50.00, if someone uses Login Credentials without Company's permission.
- b. If Company does not tell Bank within two (2) Business Days after Company learns of the loss or theft of Login Credentials and Bank can prove Bank could have prevented the unauthorized use of Login Credentials, if Company had told Bank earlier, Company or Account Owner of personal Account could lose as much as $500.00.
- c. Should Periodic Statement(s) for personal Accounts show transfers that Company or Account Owner did not make, including those made through Online Banking or Mobile Services, or other means, Company or Account Owner will inform Bank immediately. If Company or Account Owner does not tell Bank within sixty (60) calendar days after the Periodic Statement for personal Account was mailed, Account Owner may not get back any of the money lost after the sixty (60) calendar days if Bank can prove that Bank could have stopped someone from taking the money if Company or Account Owner had told Bank earlier. If a valid reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept Company or Account Owner from telling Bank, Bank may, at Bank's option, extend the time periods.
- d. Company agrees to assist Bank in Bank's efforts to recover any funds that were transferred or paid without Company's permission or consent.

7. Contact in Event of Unauthorized Transfer. If Company believes Login Credentials have been lost or stolen, someone has attempted to use Mobile Services without Company's consent, Company's Account(s) or other personal Account(s) have been accessed or someone has transferred money without Company's permission, Company must notify Bank immediately at:

- iii. The dollar amount of the suspected error and approximately when the error took place.

9. Use of Services. Company will use the Services only for its own internal business use in accordance with the terms of the Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Company agrees not to make the Services available or allow the use of the Services in a computer service bureau business, timesharing, or otherwise disclose or allow use of the Services by or for the benefit of any third party.

10. Availability. Bank agrees to make any of the Services which are accessed through the Internet, available, other than when System Maintenance is being performed. However, transactions are processed and information is updated only on Business Days.

11. Authorization. Bank shall be entitled to rely on any verbal or written notice or instruction believed by it in good faith to be given by an officer, member, and partner or authorized representative of Company. In some cases, Bank can rely on the signature on the Agreement to be a valid signature for, and binding upon, all Entities identified in the Agreement and Schedules thereto. For personal Accounts, Bank shall be entitled to rely on any verbal or written notice or instructions believed by it in good faith is being given by any Account Owner on personal Account.

Company agrees that such security procedures for the Services are commercially reasonable. Company agrees to be bound by any payment order, transaction or Service change order that is acted upon by Bank in accordance with such security procedure. Bank shall exercise due care in seeking both to preserve the confidentiality of the Login Credentials to prevent the use of the Services by unauthorized persons. It is understood and agreed that implementation by Bank of its normal procedures for maintaining the confidentiality of information relating to Company's Login Credentials shall constitute fulfillment of its obligation to exercise due care. Bank shall not otherwise be under any liability or have any responsibility of any kind for any loss incurred or damage suffered by Company or Account Owner on a personal Account by reason or in consequence of any unauthorized person gaining access to, or otherwise making use of, the Services.

Company must restrict access to the Services to Company's System Managers and System Users granted access by the System Managers. Company acknowledges Bank shall not be under any liability or have any responsibility of any kind for any loss incurred or damage suffered by Company or Account Owner on personal Account, by reason or in consequence of any action of a System Manager or System User. Company and Account Owner on personal Account assumes full responsibility for the consequences of any misuse or unauthorized use of or access to the Services or disclosure of any confidential information or instructions of Company by Company's employees, agents, or other third parties.

13. Security Tokens. With Treasury Online Banking, Bank offers an additional layer of protection through the use of security tokens with one-time passwords, challenge/response, and electronic digital signatures.

Features of security tokens include:

 - i. Register and remember a Personal Identification Number (PIN); and,
 - ii. Possess a hand-held security token, issued by Bank.
- b. Website Authentication. Upon logging in to Treasury Online Banking, a number is displayed in the Individual's browser. This number can then be displayed on the security token. By verifying that this number matches, Individual can be assured that they are accessing the legitimate website.

- c. Electronic Digital Signatures. For specific Services where the transfer of funds occurs, security tokens protect the integrity of transmitted data by requiring information that is specific to the transaction to be entered before the transfer can be submitted.

Depending on the Services used by Company, security tokens with the electronic signature functionality enabled are required. For Services that require security tokens with digital signature functionality, fees are disclosed within the Schedule for that Service.

14. Third Party Aggregation Services. Some third parties offer aggregation services that allow Company to consolidate Account information from different sources so that all Accounts can be viewed at one online or mobile location. These third parties may require Company to provide personal identification information including specific Account information or Login Credentials of the System Manager or System User. By providing this information to an aggregation service, Company or Account Owner on personal Account authorizes the Third Party Aggregation Service to access Accounts, and to initiate money movement to or from Accounts.

Any use of a Third Party Aggregation Service is at Company's own risk. Company is responsible for the use of Accounts or the disclosure of any personal identification information to or by the third party. To revoke access provided to a Third Party Aggregation Service, Company agrees to contact Bank and request new Login Credentials for the System Manager or System User involved.

All matters concerning Third Party Aggregation Service's websites are solely between Company and the Third Party Aggregation Service. Bank makes no warranties or representations with regard to any Third Party Aggregation Service's website.

15. Paperless Statements. Copies of Company's Periodic Statements are available through Online Banking. Bank will automatically enroll Company in Paperless Statements for all business Accounts associated with the Entities documented in the Agreement or any future Addendums.

Personal accounts will not be automatically enrolled. A System Manager or a System User must opt-in to Paperless Statements through Business Online Banking, or an Account Owner on personal Account through a separate System specifically used to provide Services for Personal Online Banking.

If Company chooses to receive Periodic Statements through the U.S. Mail, a System Manager or System User can revoke Paperless Statements at any time. Bank's standard statement delivery fee pursuant to the applicable fee schedule will apply for the delivery of Periodic Statements through the U.S. Mail. Company should allow ten (10) Business Days to process the revocation of Paperless Statements.

In addition:

- a. Company must have access to a computer which is able to comply with and adhere to the software and hardware requirements which are required to enable the electronic delivery of bank statements as well as access to the statements, which includes having appropriate browser software, such as Microsoft Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, or Google Chrome, and communications access to the Internet.
- b. Documents may be in Portable Document Format (PDF). In order to view, download, and print a PDF document, Company must have Adobe Acrobat Reader software or another PDF Viewer. Company can download Adobe Acrobat Reader at no charge from Adobe's website.
- c. Bank may change the hardware and software required to obtain Paperless Statements at any time with ten (10) calendar days advance notice to Company. If Company chooses not to obtain the new hardware or software, Company may withdraw consent for Paperless Statements and Periodic Statements will then be delivered by U.S. Mail. Bank's standard statement delivery fee pursuant to applicable fee schedule will apply. Company will remain liable for any other fees disclosed.
16. Disputes. In the event of a dispute regarding the Services, Company and Bank agree to resolve the dispute by looking to the Agreement. In case of errors or questions about Company's transactions, Company should notify Bank as soon as possible by contacting Bank. Bank's current contact information is listed on Bank's website, www.bellbanks.com.

17. Company's Warranties and Indemnity. Company warrants and agrees that (i) its Entries are accurate, are timely and have been authorized by the party whose Account will be accessed; (ii) it will otherwise perform its obligations under the Agreement consistent with all applicable laws and regulations. Company shall indemnify and hold harmless Bank from and against any and all losses, liabilities, penalties, damages, expenses or other harm or injury including reasonable attorneys' fees (including those fees of both in-house and outside counsel) and court costs which Bank may incur or suffer or which may be asserted by any person or Entity, arising out of (i) any failure by Company to observe and perform properly each and every covenant of the Agreement or any other wrong doing of Company, (ii) any wrongful act of any affiliate or subsidiary of Company in connection with any Services provided by Bank pursuant to any agreement, regardless of whether any such affiliate or subsidiary of Company has executed such agreement, or (iii) any action taken or omitted to be taken by Bank in reasonable reliance upon information provided to Bank by Company or any affiliate or subsidiary of Company, including those granted access to the Accounts of Company, if they are not signers to those Accounts; or (iv) if the money in the Account from which a payment or transaction is to be made is subject to legal process or other claims restricting the transaction, or if the circumstances or persons beyond Bank's control prevent, delay, intercept or alter the transaction, despite reasonable precautions that Bank has taken. By execution of the Agreement, Company agrees to disclosure of Company information to those non-signing System Managers or System Users to which Company grants access, or to those persons who gain access; provided, however, that Company shall not be required to indemnify and hold harmless Bank from any losses which are caused by Bank's gross negligence or willful misconduct. The provisions of this Section shall survive the termination of the Agreement.
18. Disclaimer. Company acknowledges that the Services are provided on an "as-is" and "as-available" basis. Bank is not responsible for any errors or omissions in or to any information resulting from Company's use of the Services. Bank makes no warranty with respect to the Services to be rendered under the Agreement, including without limitation, accuracy, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose. In no event will Bank be liable for direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages arising out of the use or inability to use the Services or faulty Service even if Bank has been advised of the possibility of such damages. The warranty and remedies set forth above are exclusive and in lieu of all others, oral or written, expressed or implied. Bank is not responsible for any costs including, but not limited to, those incurred as a result of lost profits or revenue, loss of time or use of the Services, loss of data, costs of consultants, costs of substitute products, claims by third parties, or other similar costs.
19. Disclosure of Account Information to Third Parties. It is Bank's general policy to treat Account information as confidential. However, Bank will disclose information to third parties, and Company gives Bank the authority to disclose such information, about Account or the transactions Company makes ONLY in the following situations:
- a. Where it is necessary for completing transactions;
- b. Where it is necessary for activating additional Services;
- c. In order to verify the existence and condition of Account to a Designated Service Provider;
- d. In order to comply with a governmental agency, court orders or other legal processes; or,
- e. If Company gives Bank written permission.
20. Gathering, Using, and Sharing Information. Bank or Designated Service Provider may offer sites or applications that permit browsing and do not require registration in addition to offering the ability to enroll, register, or access Accounts online. Information that Bank or Designated Service Provider may collect about Company or its System Managers and System Users includes names, addresses, and other contact information; data resulting from Individual's activity, such as transaction information; and location information. Bank may also gather additional information, such as the type of device and browser being used by Individual, the IP address, operating system or other information about the device. Bank or Designated Service Provider may collect information through cookies, tags, and other technologies including biometric information.

Cookies may be used to maintain continuity during Individual's online session, gather data about the user of Bank's or Designated Service Provider's site, anti-fraud, and information for security purposes. Cookies also describe locally stored objects in an Adobe folder that remain when an Individual uses the "clear cookies," function within their browser. This type of cookie is used in connection with information security and fraud prevention.

Individuals may be able to set their browser to reject cookies. However, if Individual chooses to reject cookies, Company acknowledges that Individual cannot access Accounts with Bank, or that specific Services offered by Designated Service Providers and access through single-sign on will not be accessible. Company agrees that the removal of locally stored objects in an Adobe folder may result in Individual being required to receive a Security Access Code each time they login to Business Online Banking, or to answer specific questions each time they log in to Treasury Online Banking. The ability to use other features, such as the "Forgot Password," feature, will also be limited.

21. Force Majeure. Without limiting the foregoing, neither Bank nor Company shall not be liable for and shall be excused from failing to act or delay in acting if such failure or delay is caused by legal constraint, interruption of transmission or communications facilities, equipment failure, war, acts of terror, emergency conditions or other conditions beyond Bank's or Company's control, conditions including but not limited to a blizzard, flood, tornado or any other adverse weather conditions.

22. Bank's Liability. In the performance of the Services required by the Agreement, Bank shall be entitled to rely solely on the information, representations and warranties provided by Company pursuant to the Agreement and shall not be responsible for the accuracy or completeness of such information. Except as otherwise specifically provided by law, Bank shall be responsible only for performing the Services expressly provided for in the Agreement and shall be liable only in the event of loss due to its gross negligence or willful misconduct in performing those Services. In no event shall Bank have any liability for any consequential, special, incidental, punitive or indirect damages Company may incur or suffer in connection with the Agreement whether or not the likelihood of such damages was known or contemplated by Bank and regardless of the legal or equitable theory of liability Company may assert.

If, for any reason, Bank is adjudged liable to Company, it shall only be to the extent that the amount of the damages resulting from such liability arise out of Bank's gross negligence or willful misconduct and, in such cases, damages will be limited to the amount of the aggregate monthly fees and charges paid by Company for the Services for the immediate three (3) month period prior to the event giving rise to Company's claim. In no event shall Bank be liable for consequential damages, exemplary damages or lost profits, even if Company advises Bank of the possibility of such damages. The provisions of this Section shall survive the termination of the Agreement.

Bank will not be liable to Company in the following situations:

- a. If through no fault of Bank, Company or Account Owner on a personal Account does not have enough available money in Account from which a payment or transaction is to be made, or if Account has been closed or is not in good standing, or if Bank reversed a payment or transaction because of insufficient funds, or if any payment or transaction would go over the credit limit of any Account;

- g. If Bank has a hold on Account.
- h. If Account is closed or has been frozen.
- i. If Company or anyone authorized by Company commits any fraud or violates any law or regulation.

- l. If Company is in default under the Agreement or if Bank or Company terminate the Agreement.
- m. If the failure was caused by a fire, or other catastrophe, or by an electrical or computer failure or by other causes beyond Bank's control, or if Bank has a reason to believe that the transaction requested is unauthorized; and,

For incidental or consequential damages, the above listing is not meant to be exhaustive.

23. Technical Support and Training. From time-to-time, and depending on Services that Company may use, System Managers or System Users may request Bank to provide technical support or additional training. This technical support or training may be provided via telephone or on-site. Assistance provided via telephone may include the use of tools that grant Bank employees access to Company's hardware and software.

Company agrees that any System Manager or System User that interacts with Bank has permission to receive technical support or training, which may include remote PC support, from a Bank employee or Designated Service Provider.

Bank is not responsible for bad memory, failure of hard drives, power supplies, motherboards, or any other hardware failures that may occur under normal use while machines are being remotely controlled. Bank is also not responsible for any data loss, although Bank will attempt to minimize the chance data loss will occur.

24. Fees. If applicable, and in consideration for the Services provided, Company agrees to pay such fees as may be charged by Bank pursuant to the applicable fee schedule as disclosed from time to time to Company. Bank may change the fees at any time in its sole discretion. Any applicable fees will be charged regardless of whether the Service was used during the billing cycle. There may be a charge for additional transactions and other optional Services. Company agrees to pay such charges and authorizes Bank to deduct the calculated amount from Company's designated Billing Account for these amounts and any additional charges that may be incurred by Company. Any fees associated with Company's standard deposit Accounts will continue to apply.

25. Assignment. The Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and assigns; provided, however, that Company may not sell, assign, or transfer the Agreement without Bank's prior written consent, whose consent shall not be unreasonably withheld based on Operating Procedures, bank regulations, National Automated Clearing House Rules and the financial viability of the assignee. Bank may assign the Agreement or any of its rights or obligations hereunder, in whole or in part, without such consent, to any subsidiary, affiliate, successor, or purchaser of Bank, or any portion of its business or assets. Bank may, at any time, in whole or in part, delegate any of its functions hereunder to any affiliate, purchaser, successor, or subcontractor.
26. No Waiver. Bank shall not be deemed to have waived any of Bank's rights or remedies hereunder unless such waiver is in writing and signed by Bank. No delay or omission on Bank's part in exercising any rights or remedies shall operate as a waiver of such rights or remedies or any other rights or remedies. A waiver on any one (1) occasion shall not be construed as a bar or waiver of any rights or remedies on future occasions.
27. Governing Law. Any dispute concerning Bank and Company, arising out of, connected with, related to, or incidental to the relationship established between them in connection with the Agreement, and whether arising in contract, tort, equity or otherwise, shall be resolved in accordance with the internal laws and not the conflicts of law provisions of the State of North Dakota.
28. Choice of Forum. Bank and Company agree that all disputes between them arising out of, connected with, related to, or incidental to the relationship established between them in connection with the Agreement, and whether arising in contract, tort, equity or otherwise, shall be resolved only by the State or Federal courts located in Cass County, North Dakota, but Bank and Company acknowledge that any appeals from those courts may have to be heard by a court located outside of Cass County, North Dakota. Company waives in all disputes any objection that it may have to the location of the court considering the dispute.
29. Captions. The captions of sections hereof are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any of the provisions of the Agreement.
30. Amendment; Counterparts; Miscellaneous. From time to time Bank may amend any of the terms and conditions contained in the Agreement, as needed based on Operating Procedures, bank regulations and National Automated Clearing House Rules. Such amendments shall become effective upon receipt of notice by Company or such later date as may be stated in Bank's notice to Company. The Agreement may be executed in two (2) or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed as original but such counterparts together shall constitute one (1) instrument. If any provision of the Agreement is held to be unenforceable or invalid, the other provisions shall continue in full force and effect. The failure of either party to insist on strict performance of any of the provisions hereunder shall not be construed as the waiver of any subsequent default of a similar nature.
31. Termination.
 - a. In General. The Agreement shall continue in full force and effect until either party terminates the Agreement by giving the other party thirty (30) calendar days advance written or oral notice of its intention to terminate; provided, however, that any such termination by Company shall not be effective until Bank has had a reasonable opportunity to act upon Company's notice of termination. The termination of the Agreement shall not affect the rights and obligations of the parties which have accrued prior to such termination.
 - b. Immediate Termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Bank may terminate the Agreement and suspend any Service immediately without written notice to Company if, at any time, (i) Company fails to comply with any of its material obligations hereunder, (ii) Company is in default under any other material obligation with Bank, (iii) a receiver, custodian, trustee, or similar official has been appointed, or been applied for by Company for all or a substantial part of Company's property, (iv) any general assignment has been made for the benefit of creditors with respect to Company, (v) a voluntary or involuntary case, petition or proceeding has been commenced under the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other

32. Complete Agreement. The parties hereto acknowledge that each has read the Agreement, understands it, and agrees to be bound by its terms. Company agrees that the Agreement is the complete and exclusive statement of Company and Bank pertaining to the Services, which supersedes any proposal or prior agreement, oral or written, and any other communications between Company and Bank relating to the subject matter of the Agreement. If there is a conflict between what Bank's employee says and the terms of the Agreement, the terms of the Agreement will prevail.
33. Notices. All notices, requests, demands, directions and other communications given to or made upon Company by Bank may be made orally, in writing (including facsimile communication), or electronically. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Agreement, all communications provided under the Agreement by Company may be given to Bank by letter, facsimile or electronically, as deemed acceptable by Bank, subject to such additional terms and conditions as Bank may require. In its sole discretion, Bank may, but shall not be required to, accept communications given to Bank orally. Any communications given to Bank orally shall promptly thereafter be confirmed in writing, but Bank will incur no liability for Company's failure to send written confirmation or for the failure of any such written confirmation to conform to the communication received by Bank via telephone.
